Current Business:

1. The Commission decided on the main activities for "Power Hour" at Murdock Elementary. There will be four stations: Frisbee, obstacle course, hockey, and paper snowball fight. The Commission then discussed potential treats for the students and the equipment needed for this event.
2. The Commission started to plan for "Holiday Cheer," an event where money is raised for less fortunate families. The money will be raised for students at La Mesa Arts Academy this year. Potential fundraisers could be held at Panda Express, Rubios, and Round Table Pizza. Discussion on the dates and publication of the fundraisers will continue, since confirmation from each location is needed.
3. As the Commission wants to focus more on addressing teen issues this year, a "Teen Talk," was held. The Commissioners examined the transition into high school and shared their personal experiences, strategizing how the transition could be smoother for teens in the future.
