

Todd House

8069 Vista Drive

The Todd House stands on the north slope of Mt. Nebo, built into the hillside on a high raised foundation. It is one of the few homes in La Mesa to show the influence of Frank Lloyd Wright's Prairie style of architecture. Orien and Mary Todd purchased plans for the home from the E. W. Stillwell Company and built the house in 1911. Among the many local achievements of the Todd family, Mary Todd helped start La Mesa's first Easter Sunrise Service, which was held at Prospect Point prior to moving to Mount Helix.
